Issue background:

State Law Enforcement Agencies need immediate state funding for replacement radios.

- Most agencies, because of funding issues, are using radios that are 10-13 years old when industry-wide useful life expectancy is only 7 years.
- For state agencies, over 14,000 mobile and portable radios have exceeded end-of-life/end-of-support status. Similarly, third party users have nearly 2,900 radios in end-of-life / end-of-support status.
- The State's first responders require a radio refresh to comply with Florida policy for technology refreshment.

The SLERS Joint Task Force directive in its Strategic Planning Report May 19, 2014:

?SLERS state agencies and additional subscribers are advised to purchase adequate stock of EDACS equipment to meet their needs for the period leading up to completion of the new system, which could extend to the end of the current contract on June 30, 2021. Any newly manufactured radio equipment purchased must be P25 Phase II compliant.?

DMS Report to Legislature December 12, 2009:

?The equipment lifecycles for handheld and vehicle units are typically 6 years for handheld and 8 years for vehicle.?

-SLERS users also require a radio refresh for P25

DMS Business Case Study January 28, 2015:

?To move forward with a P25 system upgrade, all existing EDACS-EA radios will need to be replaced with P25 radios to operate on the new system.?

FY 2016-17 Funding Request:	$22,300,000	Total Units:	4,754
Portable
Mobile
Florida Highway Patrol	$12,300,000	2,724	---
Florida Wildlife Commission	$ 8,400,000	274	1,486
Dept. of Business & Professional Regulation	$ 1,600,000	52	208

Legislative Funding Request:

$76.7M is needed to refresh 14,170 state agency radios ($64M) and 2,937 third party radios ($12.7M) . Example of largest agency needs:

- Florida Department of Law Enforcement $6.2M (1,432 radios)
- Florida Highway Patrol $25.4M (5,645 radios)
- Florida Wildlife Commission $8.3M (1,760 radios)
- Department of Corrections $10.4M (2,248 radios)
- Ag Law $1.9M (436 radios)
- Florida National Guard $2.5M (614 radios)

? Today, more than 17,000 radios are currently beyond useful lifecycle and manufacturer support.

? To allow time for programming, training and deployment, user agencies will need to begin now to refresh SLERS radios.

? New Harris radios operate on today?s SLERS and P25 standard technologies, preserving the value of the State?s investment. Harris has the only radio that provides both:

- o Mandatory backward compatibility with the current SLERS system; and

- o Forward compatibility with the future SLERS P25 network and any other P25-compliant network.

Harris Radio Lease-to-Own Program

The opportunity to upgrade radios to P25 cost-effectively and efficiently exists today.

Highlights of Harris Radio Municipal Tax Exempt 0 % Financing Program:

- ? Financing institution assumes risk of non-appropriation.
- ? All approved SLERS radio packages per state contract are eligible under this program.
- ? Harris will provide the administrative oversight and support for the program.
- ? Harris will be responsible for performance and service of the equipment.
- ? This program also includes warranty and maintenance of the equipment under the terms of SLERS contract.
- ? All interest rates are at 0% (zero) percentage for either of the selected terms.
 - o 60 months for portables.
- ? Portables are priced with a second battery.
 - o 60 or 72 months for mobiles
